

REEDSPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT

POLICY: EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

CODE: BDC

The Board may meet to discuss administrative affairs in executive session but may not take final action except for the expulsion of students and for the examination of student medical records.

Executive sessions may be held during a regular, special, or emergency meeting for any reason permitted by law.

The presiding officer will announce the executive session by identifying the authorization under ORS 192.610 - .690 for holding such session, and by noting the subject of the executive session.

Members of the press may attend executive sessions except for those pertaining to:

- Strategies for negotiations,
- Hearings on the expulsion of minor students,
- Matters pertaining to a student's medical records,
- Matters pertaining to a student's educational program, if related to a medical condition,
- Litigation or litigation likely to be filed if the member of the news media is a party to the litigation or is an employee, agent or contractor of a news media organization that is a party to the litigation.

A Board member may request and, with the consensus of the Board, require the presiding officer to convene an executive session for a purpose authorized under ORS 192.610 - .690.

The following shall not be made public as a result of an executive session held under ORS 332.061: the name of the minor student; the issue, including the student's confidential medical records and educational program; the discussion; and each school Board member's vote on the issue.

All executive session minutes not conducted under ORS 332.061 shall be kept in written form or in the form of a sound tape.

Content and documents pertaining to issues discussed in executive sessions are confidential and shall not be made public.
