

REEDSPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT

---

POLICY: PROMOTION AND RETENTION OF STUDENTS

It shall be the general practice of Reedsport School District to prevent student retention. However, the Reedsport School District feels that retention can be viewed as a positive opportunity for students to more completely reach their academic and personal potential.

Teachers shall schedule conferences and keep parents informed of their child's progress. When retention is being considered, the teacher or teachers, building administrator and parents shall hold a staffing and discuss the possible retention. Each building shall develop procedures for retention which will include procedures for the staffing. Should there be a disagreement between parents and school administrators regarding retention the building administrator should have parents indicate in writing their reasons that their child not be retained. The final decision on retention shall be made at the building administration level and shall consider all alternatives and the parents wishes regarding placement of their child.
