College Student: Recommendation Letter from Teacher

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Jane Smith.

I have known Jane Smith for 3 years as a student in my English, handwriting and creative writing classes. She is a very serious and hardworking student who has achieved excellent grades in all her classes.

Jane is a highly talented person who has demonstrated exceptional ability in writing. She is very serious with her studies and has achieved excellent grades in all her classes. She is a highly motivated student who has demonstrated exceptional ability in writing. She is very serious with her studies and has achieved excellent grades in all her classes.

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION FOR A STUDENT

Dear Admissions Committee,

I have had the wonderful pleasure of being able to teach Jane Smith in my class at ABC High School. From the very first day of the class, she was pretty much with her capability of being articulate, especially regarding language arts and writing, as well as her attitude towards the subject of literature, particularly in the area of writing, as well as her creative expression.

Jane is a very talented person and literary critic. She has demonstrated my best and highest recommendations as both a writer and a reader. She is a very serious person, most especially when it comes to taking into consideration the quality of her work, as well as the purpose behind the work of the authors. She has demonstrated her creative talent, with which she spent an entire year on creative writing. She has demonstrated her creative talent, with which she spent an entire year on creative writing.

When she was called up for her final presentation, she was very quiet with elegant about all of her contributions, and was able to demonstrate her creative talent, most particularly when it comes to the field of writing. She has demonstrated her creative talent, most particularly when it comes to the field of writing.

She is a very serious person who is really driven to explore writing, as well as to explore the creative talent of her students. She has demonstrated her creative talent, most particularly when it comes to the field of writing.

Sincerely,
Ms. James Taylor
